Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1769.

THE Printer hereof intreats the Favour of all thoſe who are in Arrears for this GAZETTE, to make Payment immediately; and hopes thoſe of his Country Cuſtomers, who have not yet paid any Thing, will conſider him, and chearfully comply with his Requeſt, by ordering their Friends or Factors in Town to pay off their Accounts, which will be of very great Service to him.—And all Perſons whatever, who may be inclinable to favour the Printer of this Gazette with their ADVERTISEMENTS, may rely on its anſwering their End, as he is regular in publiſhing his Paper on the Day it is dated, and the Circulation of it is very extenſive; but it is hoped, at the ſame Time, that they will be pleaſed to ſend the CASH with them, as he is determinined in future to receive none without, except it be thoſe of the Public, where he owes Money, or has an open Account; which Reſolution, he flatters himſelf, will give no Offence to thoſe who are really deſirous to ſerve him.

In the Council-Chamber, the 9th Day of December, 1768.

PRESENT,

His Excellency the GOVERNOR in COUNCIL.

HIS Majeſty's Surveyor General having Reported to his Excellency, that ſeveral of the Parties who had obtained Orders to have Plats of Land that were out of Date in his Office certified to them, had nevertheleſs neglected to carry them any further, whereby other People were prevented from applying for them, and neither Taxes nor Quit-Rents accrued from the ſaid Lands. His Excellency taking the ſame into Conſideration, was pleaſed, by the Advice of the Board, to direct, that if any Perſon ſhall hereafter obtain an Order to have an elapſed Plat certified to him, and ſhall not carry the ſame into a Grant, within three Months thereafter, it ſhall be again deemed out of Date; and that this Order be publiſhed in the Gazettes.

St. David's, Pedee, Auguſt, 1769.

SIR,

THO' I am fully of Opinion that our own Manufactures ought to be encouraged, with due Deference to the planting Intereſt, yet I am convinced, that in this Part of the Province, as well as in many others, the former Claims all the Attention and Application that can be conſiſtent with the latter. I have therefore employed a leiſure Hour in writing the following Addreſs to the LADIES, chiefly upon that Subject. Your giving it a Place in your GAZETTE, that it may offer itſelf to their Peruſal, will oblige your humble Servant.

To the FAIR SEX of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

LADIES,

THE public News-Papers, and your intelligent Friends have informed you, that Duties are laid upon many Articles imported into this Province from Great Britain. That theſe Duties are impoſed upon ſuch Principles as indicate an Intention to enſlave you; and which Intention will ſoon appear in more ſhocking Colours than it does at preſent, unleſs we can obtain a timely Repeal of thoſe Acts of the Britiſh Parliament, which have ſubjected us to the Payment of our Money againſt our Conſent, and made us liable to vexatious Proſecutions in a Court of Admiralty. In the mean Time, our Attention is turned towards you, in Expectation that you will concur with us in our Endeavours to bring about ſo deſirable an Event. This you may greatly contribute to, by your imbibing the Spirit of the Agreement now ſigning in all Parts of the Province, and acting as far as you can according to it.

Ladies! I am confident that you are ready to make a greater Sacrifice than this, in Order to ſave your Country from Slavery. SLAVERY, is a Word of diſmal Sound, and terrible as the Knel of Death! SLAVERY, is a Thing of ſuch horrid Import, ſo degrading to Human Nature, ſo ſhocking in all its humiliating Circumſtances, to the Delicacy of your Sex, that I am certain, you will readily purſue the laudable Meaſures recommended in the Agreement; and prefer the neceſſary Oeconomy and Induſtry to all the Pretenſions of a falſe Politeneſs, and the empty Gratifications of a Life of Diſſipation, eſpecially upon this Occaſion; when it is become a Meaſure neceſſary to ſave your Parents, Brothers, Siſters, Huſbands, Selves, and your dear Poſterity, from Infamy and Bondage.----Good Heavens! Shall theſe, ſhall you, be deprived of Freedom, and drag the corroding Chain of Slavery? Shall it ever be ſaid, that you are plundered of your deareſt Birthrights, which coſt your Anceſtors ſo much Toil and Blood to tranſmit to you? Oh, let the Tide of Patriotiſm and ſolid Glory flow in, riſe, and fill your Boſoms with a generous Zeal for your own and your Country's Cauſe.

And while you ſhew yourſelves Oeconomiſts upon this intereſting Occaſion, I hope you will alſo give your Attention to Home Manufacture. You will permit me to ſay, that in our preſent dangerous Situation, no Elevation or Rank can juſtify Neglect. Ladies of the very firſt Rank among the ancient Greeks, Romans, and other polite Nations, held it no Diminution of, but eſſential to, the Character of a virtuous Woman, to inſpect, give Directions, and even employ their own Hands, about different Kinds of Manufacture. The Perſians indeed were a polite People, if Effeminacy in the Men, and Diſſipation in the Women, with a falſe Delicacy and Grandeur in both, could denominate them ſo; but were perfect Strangers to that Oeconomy and Induſtry which in the preſent "Criſis of our Fate" will be your laſting Glory, and will tranſmit your Characters to Poſterity in the Annals of your Country with peculiar Honour. When Alexander the Great recommended it to King Darius's Mother, to accuſtom her Nieces to Carding, Spinning, and Weaving; the Perſian Ladies were greatly alarmed, having been uſed to conceit that ſuch Employments were beneath their Rank, and fit only for Peaſants---Upon which, the Grecian Monarch told them, that his Regimentals were wrought by his own Siſters.----Auguſtus Cæſar uſually wore no other Garments than what were made at Home, by his Wife, Siſter, Daughter, and Grand-Daughters. Caia Cæcilia, the Wife of King Tarquin, was a very excellent Spinner; her Diſtaff and Spindle were reſerved in the Temple of Sancus, and a Garment which ſhe made, was kept in the Temple of Fortune, to perpetuate the Memory of her domeſtic Virtues. Hence it was cuſtomary, for young Ladies to accompany newly married Women with a Diſtaff and Spindle in the Proceſſion.---And they were adviſed by their Reſpect to the Goddeſs Minerva (who was the firſt that made a Web) to follow her Example in the Uſe of the Cards, Diſtaff, and Loom. And when the Mother of Lemuel, (a young Prince for whoſe Felicity ſhe was ſolicitous) marks out the Character of a good Wife, this was part of it, "She ſeeketh Wool and Flax, and worketh diligently with her Hands." Such was the Simplicity of ancient Virtue. Such the Conduct of the fineſt Ladies that ancient Hiſtory records. Oeconomy and Induſtry, were the Companions of their whole Lives. Without the like Oeconomy and Induſtry, (as far as our Circumſtances will admit of it) we are undone. But we are aſſured that upon this intereſting Occaſion you Ladies will deſpiſe the poor Maxims of a falſe Politeneſs, and ſhine out in all the Dignity of domeſtic and patriotic Virtue. By this you will help us to recover and preſerve our Freedom, and the Freedom of all North America; and at the ſame Time preſerve our Mother Country from impending Ruin. With what an Eclat of Joy will this fill your generous Boſoms! What a noble Figure will your Huſbands and Brothers make on the public Stage of Life, dreſſed in Robes of your own Manufacture! And, you yourſelves, how graceful and charming will you appear in the Eyes of all, when adorned by the generous Labours of your own Hands! Not becauſe it ſaves our Money, but yourſelves and us from FETTERS and RUIN. This will really give you Charms beyond the Powers of Language to deſcribe, and ſecure to you the moſt valuable and laſting Regards.

I am, LADIES,
Your moſt humble Servant,
PHILEUTHERAS.

LONDON, July 4.

ON Saturday laſt after John Sawbridge, Eſq; was unanimouſly elected Alderman of Langburn Ward, he addreſſed the inhabitants to the following effect.

"Gentlemen, I return you my warmeſt thanks for this diſtinguiſhed mark of your eſteem and confidence, an honour which gives me the higheſt ſatisfaction, as it can only proceed from your approbation of my public conduct, and to which I have not the leaſt claim or pretence from perſonal friendſhip or connection. Permit me to give you this public aſſurance, that I will endeavour to merit a continuance of your eſteem, by a diligent and conſcientious diſcharge of the duties of that truſt, ever remembering, that your unanimous choice can only be conſidered as an approbation of my zealous endeavours to procure redreſs of our invaded liberties."

A few days ago a gentleman in the city, of conſiderable dealings, received a meſſage from the Weſt end of the town, purporting, that if he intereſts himſelf any further in city elections, he muſt never expect to ſee his name again in any future liſt.

We hear that next week a petition, from Litchfield in Staffordſhire, will be preſented to his Majeſty on the preſent ſtate of affairs.

Eaſt-India-Houſe, July 3, 1769.

The Queen Eaſt-Indiaman, Capt. Stainforth, is arrived off Falmouth; the letters by her are dated the 6th of January, 1769, and bring advice, that the Deputies who were ſent to Illahabad, have concluded a new treaty with Sujah Dowlah, who has acquieſced in the moſt eſſential parts of the Company's juſt pretenſions. Nothing new from Fort St. George and Bombay.

On Saturday laſt when his Grace the Duke of Grafton was inſtalled Chancellor of the Univerſity of Cambridge, in the Senate-Houſe at that place, his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Dublin, and Doctor of Laws, was admitted by the Duke of Grafton to the ſame Degree in the Engliſh Univerſity. The Chancellor afterwards dined in Trinity-College Hall, at the upper table: On one hand ſat the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the Marquis of Granby, the Biſhops of London and Norwich: On the other, the Vice-Chancellor, the Biſhops of Cheſter, Bangor, and Carliſle: Oppoſite to the Chancellor ſat the Duke of Bedford, on one hand Lord North, Count Bruhl, and Count Welderen, with Lord Richard Cavendiſh, the Hon. Mr. Proby, and the Hon. Mr. Irby. There were four other large tables in the hall, at each of which ſat upwards of 30 gentlemen. The Preſidents were the Earl of Sandwich, Lord Weymouth, Lord Montfort, Lord Burgerſh; and at other tables in the Maſter's Lodge, Sir Alexander Gilmour, Sir Henry Bridgeman, &c. preſided. There were alſo preſent the Biſhop of Lincoln, Lord Henley, Sir Robert Ladbrooke, the Burrels, Onſlows, and a number of other Members of Parliament and Perſons of Diſtinction.

Sunday ſe'nnight a Divine preached an excellent Sermon at the Church near Lewiſham in Kent, from St. Matthew, Chap. xiv. Ver. 10. "And he ſent and beheaded John in Priſon." The Lord Mayor happened to be preſent.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, June 23.

"Some advices, by the way of Lyons, inform us, that the Pope, ſome days after his coronation, cauſed the General of the Jeſuits and ſix of his aſſiſtants to be conducted to the Caſtle of St. Angelo; and that Cardinal Torregiani hath been baniſhed to Rimini, becauſe that by ſome proofs which the court of Spain hath communicated, they are all convicted of having been the authors of ſome conſpiracies in Spain. Their effects are all ſequeſtered."

It is reported that a Court of Common Council will be held in a few days to take into conſideration a letter addreſſed to a Chief Magiſtrate from a great man at the Weſt end of the town.

July 6. Yeſterday the Right Hon. Samuel Turner, Eſq; Lord Mayor, Sir Robert Ladbrooke, Mr. Alderman Beckford, and Mr. Alderman Trecothick, together with the Sheriffs, accompanied by Peter Roberts, Eſq; this city's Remembrancer, proceeded in ſtate to St. James's with the petition of the Livery of London, where, after waiting a ſhort time in the Anti-chamber, his Lordſhip ſent in a meſſage by the Remembrancer to the Lord of the Bed-chamber. He was deſired by Mr. Pitt, Groom of the Bed-chamber, to deliver his meſſage. The Remembrancer anſwered, his buſineſs could only be delivered to the Lord of the Bed-chamber, and that his orders were to communicate it to none but his Lordſhip. Soon after Lord Huntingdon came out, and acquainted the Lord Mayor, that Lord Orford was in waiting, that the Levee was begun, and therefore he could not leave the King; but if they had any thing to preſent, they might walk into the Levee. Mr. Beckford anſwered, they were ready to obey the King's Commands; and Lord Huntingdon returned. After ſome time, Lord Orford, the ſaid Lord in waiting, came out and told them, that if they had any thing to deliver they might walk into the Levee, which they immediately did; and the King being near the door, the Lord Mayor addreſſed him to the following effect.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

"We, the Lord Mayor, the Repreſentatives in Parliament, together with the Sheriffs of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal city of London, preſume to approach your Royal perſon, and beg leave to preſent, with all humility to your Majeſty, the dutiful and moſt humble petition of your Majeſty's faithful and loyal ſubjects the Livery of London, in Common-Hall aſſembled, complaining of Grievances; and from your Majeſty's unbounded goodneſs, and paternal regard and affection for all your ſubjects, they humbly preſume to hope, that your Majeſty will graciouſly condeſcend to liſten to their juſt complaints, and to grant them ſuch relief as in your Majeſty's known wiſdom and juſtice ſhall ſeem meet."

After which his Lordſhip preſented the petition to his Majeſty, but the King made no anſwer, and immediately turned about to Baron Bieden, the Daniſh Miniſter, and delivered the petition to the Lord in waiting, which was as follows:

To the KING's moſt excellent MAJESTY.

The humble Petition of the Livery of the City of London, in Common-Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the Livery [illegible] of the city of London, with all the humility which is [illegible] from free ſubjects, to their lawful Sovereign, but with all the [illegible] which the ſenſe of the preſent oppreſſions, and the juſt [illegible] of future miſchiefs produce in our minds, beg leave to [illegible] before your Majeſty ſome of thoſe intolerable grievances, [illegible] people have ſuffered from the evil conduct of thoſe, [illegible] intruſted with the adminiſtration of your Majeſty's [illegible] and from the ſecret unremitting influence of the [illegible] counſellors.

[illegible] be wanting in our duty to your Majeſty, as well as [illegible] and our poſterity, ſhould we forbear to repreſent to [illegible] the deſperate attempts which have been, and are too [illegible] made to deſtroy that conſtitution, to the ſpirit of [illegible] ſure the relation which ſubſiſts between your Majeſty [illegible] and the ſubjects of theſe realms, and to ſubvert thoſe ſacred laws, [illegible] our anceſtors have ſealed with their blood.

Your Miniſters, from corrupt principles, and in violation of every duty, have, by various enumerated means, invaded our inherent and unalienable right of trial by jury.

They have, with impunity, iſſued General Warrants, and violently ſeized perſons and private papers.

They have rendered the laws non-effective to our ſecurity, by evading the Habeas Corpus.

They have cauſed puniſhments, and even perpetual impriſonment, to be inflicted, without trial, conviction or ſentence.

They have brought into diſpute the Civil Magiſtracy by the appointment of perſons who are, in many reſpects, unqualified for that important truſt, and have thereby purpoſely furniſhed a pretenſe for calling in the aid of a military power.

They avow, and endeavour to eſtabliſh, a maxim abſolutely inconſiſtent with our conſtitution——that "an occaſion for effectually employing a military force always preſents itſelf, when the civil power is reſiſted with or inſulted;" and, by a fatal and falſe application of this maxim, they have wantonly and wickedly ſacrificed the lives of many of your Majeſty's innocent ſubjects, and have proſtituted your Majeſty's ſacred name and authority, to juſtify, applaud, and recommend their own illegal and bloody actions.

They have ſcreened more than one murderer from puniſhment, and in its place have unnaturally ſubſtituted reward.

They have eſtabliſhed numberleſs unconſtitutional regulations and taxations in our colonies. They have cauſed a revenue to be raiſed in ſome of them by prerogative. They have appointed Civil Law Judges to try revenue cauſes, and to be paid for out of the condemnation money.

After having inſulted and defeated the law on different occaſions, and by different contrivances, both at home and abroad; they have at length completed their deſign, by violently wreſting from the people the laſt ſacred right we had left, the right of election, by the unprecedented ſeating of a Candidate notoriouſly ſet up and choſen only by themſelves. They have thereby taken from your ſubjects all hopes of parliamentary redreſs, and have left us no reſource, under God, but in your Majeſty.

All this they have been able to effect by corruption. By a ſcandalous miſapplication and embezzlement of the public treaſure, and a ſhameful proſtitution of public honours and employments; procuring deficiencies of the civil liſt to be made good without examination; and, inſtead of puniſhing, conferring honours on a Pay-maſter, the public defaulter of unaccounted millions.

From an unfeigned ſenſe of the duty we owe to your Majeſty and to our country, we have ventured thus humbly to lay before the throne thoſe great and important truths, which it has been the buſineſs of your Miniſters to conceal. We moſt earneſtly beſeech your Majeſty to grant us redreſs. It is for the purpoſe of redreſs alone, and for ſuch occaſions as the preſent, that thoſe great and extenſive powers are intruſted to the crown by the wiſdom of that conſtitution which your Majeſty's illuſtrious family was choſen to defend, and which we truſt in God it will for ever continue to ſupport."

After the Levee at St. James's yeſterday, a Privy Council was held, which chiefly conſiſted of the following Noblemen and Gentlemen, viz. Duke of Bedford, Lord Mansfield, Lord Sandwich, Lord Talbot, Lord North, Richard Rigby, Eſquire.

The Duke of Rutland was there, but withdrew before the Council was opened.

The Biſhop of Saliſbury in his ſpeech to the Houſe of Lords at the impeachment of Dr. Henry Sacheverell, quoted the following ſentence from King James's ſpeech to his Parliament, in the year 1609:

"A King leaves to be a King, and degenerates into a tyrant, "as ſoon as he leaves off to govern by law: In which caſe the "King's conſcience may ſpeak to him, as the poor woman to "Philip of Macedon, Either govern by law, or ceaſe to be a "King."

The Grand Jury at Aylesbury have agreed on a meeting of the Freeholders of Buckinghamſhire for a Petition.

By letters from Jamaica, we hear, that the inhabitants of St. Domingo, after having taken arms and beat the French King's troops, ſent a memorial to the Court of France, deſcribing the neceſſity they were under to ſupport their rights, which had been cruelly invaded by the Governor, and requeſting the King to recall him, and ſome other obnoxious perſons, declaring their reſolutions not to ſubmit to the arbitrary treatment they had lately met with.

It is confidently aſſerted, that a total change of the Miniſtry will ſhortly take place; and a new commiſſion of the peace for the county of Middleſex.

The following has been publiſhed as a true copy of a Card ſent by Lord Weymouth to the Lord Mayor.

Arlington-ſtreet, June 27, 1769.

"Lord Weymouth preſents his compliments to the Lord Mayor of "London, and begs leave to aſſure his lordſhip, that he ſhould be "extremely glad to give him any information relative to the preſent-"ing the petition of the Livery of London to his Majeſty, as the "Secretary of State never takes the King's pleaſure with regard to "the time and place of receiving petitions. They are uſually pre-"ſented to the King, either on Sunday, as his Majeſty is going to or "returning from the Chapel; or on Thurſday, as he goes to or re-"turns from the Drawing-room."

Lord Viſcount Howe, Treaſurer of the Navy. Lord Mayor, Receiver General of the Cuſtoms. Lord George Sackville, Hon. James Grenville, Edmund Burke, Joint Vice Treaſurers of Ireland. Jeremiah Dyſon, Secretary to ditto.

It is confidently ſaid the moſt effectual methods will be perſued to put a ſtop to the petitions ſaid to be in agitation in ſeveral parts of this kingdom, the weight they may have with a certain perſonage being much dreaded by the Miniſtry Party.

It is alſo ſaid, that whoever appears at the head of public affairs muſt unavoidably adopt the ſame meaſures which have been perſued for ſome time paſt, as none are allowed to guide, the plan having been laid down by the Thane previous to his journey, and ratified ſince at Zell, ſo that a change of men, and not of meaſures, is all according to ſome that is to be expected.

It is ſaid a great man has ſtrenuouſly adviſed the compliance with certain articles in a late requeſt.

We hear that Lord Chatham had the honour of a private conference with his Majeſty yeſterday.

Yeſterday it was obſerved at court, that there ſeemed to be the greateſt cordiality between a certain noble Earl and the preſent Miniſters.

Letter from Mr. Wilkes to Mr. John Churchill, brother of the celebrated Mr. Charles Churchill, on the report of a preſent vacancy for the City of Weſtminſter.

I Beg the favour of you, my dear Sir, to return my beſt thanks to the friends of Liberty in Weſtminſter, who have ſo handſomely offered me their ſervice on the preſent vacancy for that city. I wiſh you to be quite explicit on the occaſion, and to declare in my name, that I think it my duty to decline the honour intended me. I am now as much a legal member of the Houſe of Commons as our Speaker himſelf. The only difference I can find out is, I repreſent the firſt county in England, he a ſmall borough in Lincolnſhire. I am a Knight of the Shire, he is a ſimple Burgeſs. At this time I am actually ſupporting, as far as I can, the right of repreſentation of my worthy conſtituents, and of every elector in the iſland, which is violated in my pretended expulſion. I will purſue with unwearied zeal ſo great a cauſe. I hold myſelf ſtill the colleague of Mr. Serjeant Glynn, becauſe we were both choſen by a majority of the freeholders of the county of Middleſex. I am beſides determined not to vacate my ſeat in Parliament, and therefore I cannot be in the capacity of receiving ſuch obliging marks of regard from our Weſtminſter friends, whom I much eſteem, but cannot repreſent. I have taken my reſolution, which you know is always very decided. I will never ſit in Parliament but by the favour and free choice of the freeholders of Middleſex. No political changes, nor any conſiderations whatever, ſhall induce me to quit the particular ſervice of my preſent worthy conſtituents. They have, under the moſt trying circumſtances, ſupported me with unparalleled firmneſs and generoſity. I am theirs for life from every principle of honour and gratitude.

Believe me ever your moſt affectionate,
And obliged humble Servant,
JOHN WILKES.

Extract of a Letter from Wilmington, in North-Carolina, dated the firſt Inſtant.

"The People here, in general, honour the Gentlemen of your Province, for their generous Aſſociation againſt importing of Goods, but I believe the Situation of this Province will prevent ſuch an Aſſociation here.—The Virginians have done nobly too, notwithſtanding the ill augurings of Lord Bottetourt, but am told the Aſſociators there are chiefly Planters; if ſo, the Gentlemen of your Place have greatly the Preference."

BASSETERRE, (in St. Chriſtophers) JULY 29.

ON Wedneſday the 26th inſt. it blew a violent gale, inclining Southwardly, which occaſioned a great ſurf; ſome of the veſſels drifted: The ſhip St. Kitts Planter, Capt. Baker, belonging to Briſtol, and a Brig belonging to Philadelphia, both parted their anchors, which obliged them to go to ſea; ſeveral ſmall craft likewiſe put out to ſea. The weather continuing bad prevented the ſhips ſailing on that day; moſt of the Captains proteſted, to prevent paying the double inſurance; the weather became moderate the next day, and the ſhips all ſailed.

AUGUST 9. On Monday arrived expreſs here from Antigua, the William and Elizabeth, Capt. Bamfield, by whom we have an account that the Caraibes in St. Vincent had aſſembled together, and obſtructed the people employed in making roads, &c. in conſequence of which James Hartly, Eſq; (an officer of the militia) was diſpatched to Antigua, in order to procure arms for the inhabitants, where he got 200 firelocks, and immediately proceeded to this place. 'Tis ſaid he is to receive 300 ſtand of arms from hence.

Extract of a Letter from Dominica, July 29.

"The gale came on the 26th in the morning, the ſnow ——, C. Arnett, bound for London, loaded with ſugar, &c. drove on ſhore and loſt.——At Roſſeau, a ſloop from Philadelphia, ditto, 11 French ſloops and ſchooners, ditto, ſitto, Captains Harriſon and Stevenſon, in two ſhips belonging to London, rode the gale out, though they each parted one cable. When this account came away, advice was received that two topſail veſſels were loſt in Prince Rupert's Bay."

We learn by a Gentleman who left the Windward part of Gaudaloupe the 28th, that there was not then in that part of the country, any accounts of damage done upon the ſea coaſt of that iſland, nor had the internal part ſuffered.

We have received advice from Grenada of the deceaſe of the Hon. Richard Gwynne, Eſq; Governor of Tobago.

We alſo learn from Grenada, by Capt. Millar, who arrived here Sunday laſt, in a paſſage of four days from that iſland, that no damage had been done to the ſhipping there; and that the greateſt part of the London veſſels ſailed the 26th July.

AUGUST 16. We have received accounts from Antigua, that Harris and Euden, the two ſailors confined ſome time in goal there for murder, felony, and piracy, were tried before a Court of Admiralty the 11th inſtant, and received ſentence of death.

We hear from Grenada, that Governor Fitzmaurice arrived here in perfect health, from viſiting the different iſlands belonging to that government.

AUGUST 19. Mr. Lumley Woodyear, who arrived here yeſterday from Antigua, in the ſloop Polly, Captain Hood, informs us, that a fire broke out in the town of St. John's, on Wedneſday laſt, about two o'clock in the afternoon, which has conſumed the principal part of that town; moſt part of the ſtores and wharves are burnt down; at nine o'clock the cuſtom-houſe took fire, in conſequence of which all the adjacent ſtores muſt inevitably undergo the ſame fate. At ten o'clock, the time that Mr. Woodyear left that place, the fire was very violent in many parts of the town. In ſhort, words cannot deſcribe the diſmal ſcene.

Captain Hood ſays, that nothing will eſcape the flames, except the Court-Houſe and Guard-Houſe.—The fire began in an oven.

Saturday laſt arrived at Antigua, Commodore Man, Commander in Chief of the Squadron ſtationed at the Leeward Iſlands.

Extract of a letter from London, dated June 26.

"The city of London have carried it hollow againſt the Miniſtry in the choice of Sheriffs for London and Middleſex, which was determined laſt Saturday, and they have carried it plump in the Court of Aldermen and Common Council at Guildhall for a petition to the King for a redreſs of grievances; ſo that there muſt be a change of adminiſtration before long. Mr. Townſhend and Mr. Sawbridge are choſen Aldermen and Sheriffs for London and Middleſex. Lord Hillſborough gives it out publicly, that he has directions to write to the Governors of America, that the late Acts of Parliament for taxing goods imported into America, will be repealed the next Seſſion of Parliament; this he is obliged to do, for it is not with any good will of his own; the King has always been for peace in his American Colonies: It is further ſaid, there is a promiſe made not to attempt again the taxing our Colonies but by their own Repreſentatives."

WILLIAMSBURG, (in Virginia) AUGUST 10.

We can aſſure the public that his Excellency our Governor has received a letter from Lord Hillſborough, acquainting him that his Majeſty and his Miniſters would uſe their utmoſt endeavours, at the opening of the next Seſſion of Parliament, to obtain a repeal of all the American revenue Acts.

Immediately upon receiving this agreeable intelligence his Excellency thought proper to call a Council, which accordingly was held on Tueſday at their Chamber in the Capitol; and, with their advice, has ordered writs for ſummoning a new Aſſembly, that will be iſſued next Monday. It is ſaid, however, that they will not meet until ſome time in November.

The neceſſary abſence of the Hon. PEYTON RANDOLPH, Eſq; our late worthy Repreſentative, we are aſſured, will not prevent his fellow citizens from returning him again, the man of their choice.

As there never was any thing of the kind in Charles Town, and I have had great encouragement from numbers of people to undertake the ſame, hopes it may be of ſome utility to the public, as I am determined to uſe the utmoſt aſſiduity in the buſineſs, and thereby hope to meet with encouragement, merit approbation, and give general ſatisfaction, as I will uſe my utmoſt endeavour that perſons ſhall be accommodated with a boat and hands at a few minutes warning; I have reſerved the front room in my houſe for the accommodation of paſſengers to ſit down in while the boat gets ready, that they may not be expoſed to wait on the wharf or walk up and down the ſtreet.—If this undertaking ſhould turn out to be of that utility which is hoped it may, I flatter myſelf that when the Honourable Houſe of Aſſembly meet again, they will take it into conſideration, hear the prayer of a petition, and indulge me with an eſtabliſhment.

N. B. On the wharf, where the ferry-boat goes from, is opened a lime-ſtore, where perſons may from time to time be ſerved with any ſmall quantity of lime ſlacked or unſlacked.

ARCHITECTURE.

Ut res gesta est Narrato Ordine,

EZRA WAITE,

Civil Architect, House-builder in general, and Carver, from LONDON,

HAS finished the architecture, conducted the execution thereof, viz. in the joiner way, all tabernacle frames, (but that in the dining-room excepted) and carved all the said work in the four principal rooms; and also calculated, adjusted, and draw'd at large for to work by, the Ionick entablature, and carved the same in the front and round the eaves, of MILES BREWTON, Esquire's House, on White-Point, for Mr. MONCRIEFF.—If on inspection of the above mentioned work, and twenty-seven years experience, both in theory and practice, in noblemen and gentlemen's seats, be sufficient to recommend; he flatters himself to give satisfaction to any gentleman, either by plans, sections, elevations, or executions, at his house in King-street, next door to Mr. Wainwright's, where architecture is taught by a peculiar method never published in any book extant.

N. B. As MILES BREWTON, Esquire's dining-room is of a new construction, with respect to the finishing of windows and doorways, it has been industriously propagated by some, (believed to be Mr. Kinsey Burden, a carpenter) that the said WAITE did not do the architecture, and conduct the execution thereof. Therefore the said WAITE, begs leave to do himself justice in this public manner, and assure all gentlemen, that he the said WAITE, did construct every individual part, and drawed the same at large for the joiners to work by, and conducted the execution thereof. Any man that can prove to the contrary, the said WAITE promises to pay him One Hundred GUINEAS, as witness my hand, this 22d day of August, 1769.

Veritas odium pavit. EZRA WAITE.
